

Community Life

Community Life reports on news closest to your life. Submit information and photographs about civic or charitable activities by:

- Mail The Brunswick News, 3011 Altama Ave., Brunswick GA 31520
- E-mail life@thebrunswicknews.com

The Brunswick News

Speaker visits Rotary Club in Darien

Posted by Diane Richardson

Guest speaker Amanda Petevseim, retired commander in U.S. Navy, was eager to share her experiences as a woman while serving in the military on the same day that "women's equality" is celebrated, Aug. 26. The members were fascinated by the stories that were shared about the various tasks that military women participate in. Pictured are Rotarian Marian Owens, from left, retired Cmdr. Amanda Petevseim and Rotary President Bill Watson.

Doctor speaks to martial arts students

Posted by Natasha Williams

Members of Team GA were recently visited by Dr. Morris Pickens or "Dr. Mo" as his clients affectionately call him.

Dr. Mo is a sports psychologist specializing in competitive performance enhancement. He works with athletes and business professionals, such as Zach Johnson, Jonathan Byrd, Stewart Cink and Nick Watney, coaching them on how to choose success and reach their highest potential.

The U.S. Martial Arts Team will compete in the TAFISA World Martial Arts Games at the Richmond Olympic Oval in Richmond, Canada, today to Sept. 7. Pictured is Dr. Pickens, top right, and martial arts students on Team GA.

Daughters of the Confederacy hold meeting

Posted by Diane Settlemoir

The Lanier of Glynn Chapter No. 2354, United Daughters of the Confederacy, recently held its installation of 2014-2016 chapter officers at the Jekyll Island Club Hotel. Installing officer was President Meredith Trawick. The officers are Carolyn Nugent, president; Ouida Fry, vice president; Rose

Ann Williams, recording secretary; Karen Narciso, treasurer; Linda Hinson, registrar; Diane Settlemoir, historian; and Clynn Tilton, recorder of military service awards. Pictured are Carolyn Nugent, left, Karen Narciso, Linda Hinson, Diane Settlemoir and Clynn Tilton.

Resident marks 100th birthday

Posted by Harna Hill

Mallye Outlaw Taylor will celebrate her 100th birthday today. Born in Soperton, Mallye moved to St. Simons Island as a child when her father, a state veterinarian, was sent here to clean up the deer ticks. She became a tea girl at the Hunting Club on Sea Island – now, the Cloister Hotel – but retired from the hotel business after she met her husband, Bill Taylor.

She then ventured into real estate, bought several homes in Oglethorpe Park on the island and rented them to Navy personnel. She also helped open The Rockefeller Center in New York and owned a secondhand store on Norwich Street. Taylor is surrounded by her children Harry, Garry and Harna, Cheri and Roger, and Robin, along with several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. St. Mark's Episcopal Church hosted a birthday celebration for Mallye on Aug. 31, honoring her as the oldest member of the church.

Pictured are Kinslee Rozier, Taylor's great-granddaughter, left, and Mallye Taylor.

America's Second Harvest gets donation

Posted by Ellen Post

Communities of Coastal Georgia Foundation provided the funding for new technology to enhance America's Second Harvest community outreach efforts.

Pictured are Foundation board member Bernard McCloud, left, and Kalista Morton, America's Second Harvest staff member.

Camden County CASA receives funds

Posted by Ellen Post

The Camden County CASA Program recently received funding for technology upgrades from the Communities of Coastal Georgia Foundation.

Pictured are CASA board member Rose Andrews, left, Jeremy Jacobs, CASA board member, and Mary Root, foundation board member.

Hospice fundraiser sets record

Posted by Amy Broderick

For the ninth year in a row, the family of Mr. R.E. Thomas honored his memory with a fun-filled, sold-out fundraising benefit for Hospice of the Golden Isles.

Food and fellowship are always the standard, but this year's entertainment theme was an Elvis Extravaganza, and the Elvis impersonators didn't disappoint.

This year, the R.E. Thomas Hospice Benefit raised almost $30,000, making their total donation over nine years exceed Johnny and Joyce Thomas' unofficial $200,000 goal. A surprise donation of $11,000 by the Brunswick Glynn County Yacht Club definitely helped put them over the top. Plans are already being made for the 10th annual event. For more information on Hospice of the Golden Isles, call 265-4735 or 866-275-6801, or visit the website at Hospice.me. Pictured are attendees at the ninth annual event.

Foundation supports Grandparent Connection

Posted by Ellen Post

The Community Foundation of Coastal Georgia invested in Coastal Coalition for Children's Grandparent Connection program by providing funds for a mental health program component.

Pictured are Foundation board member Diane Laws, left, and Margaret Gant, Grandparent Connection coordinator.

CASA gets grant for advocate training

Posted by Ellen Post

CASA Glynn recently received a grant for advocate coordinator training needs from Communities in Coastal Georgia Foundation.

Pictured are CASA Glynn executive director Cary Greenfield, left, and Bonney Shuman, foundation board member.

Bank Whenever Bank Wherever.

Atlantic
NATIONAL BANK

Mobile Banking is here!

Mobile application features vary by device. Mobile Banking is currently available via the Atlantic National Bank App download-able from the iTunes App store or Google Play Store. *Mobile Deposit is subject to eligibility and further review. Deposits are subject to verification and not available for immediate withdrawal. Deposit limits and other restrictions apply. See Mobile Check Deposit Terms & Conditions for details, including information on funds availability.