

Memorial Gifts

Special grantmaking funds can be created to handle tributes and memorials. Contributions may also be made to existing funds in order to~

- honor a living person
- memorialize deceased persons
- commemorate anniversaries or other special events

You can use this giving option to~

- create a scholarship fund acknowledging the contributions of a retiring teacher
- engage a civic group in creating an emergency relief fund for a disaster
- support the favorite charities of a couple celebrating their 50th anniversary
- create a youth program that keeps the memory of a deceased child
- your idea here